Accept in Current Form (No Changes Required)

FOR ALL SUBMISSIONS, address A-C

A. What is the purpose of the submission? Is it a case study? Is it processual? Is it hypothetical? Is a research question or framing concept presented?

Case Study

B. Does the document, as is, tell the story in the amount of wordage presented?

Yes. Well stated as to intent, description, and future

- If so, great! Feel free to compliment the author in this regard.
- If not, what would improve its readability and the reader's understanding of the project?

C. Are images/figures/tables used?

Yes

- If so, do they have captions that help to explain their part of the narrative? If there are no captions, please ask the author to undertake this.
- If there are no images or links, consider whether or not images will enhance the publication. Could you make specific suggestions to this effect for the author(s)?

D. Consider these questions for DEMOS or ABSTRACTS ONLY (NOT FULL PAPERS):

- Does the submission contribute new knowledge to the field of XR?

No, but wasn't intended to. It represents an expanded use of the technology for a relevant topic to foster conversation and engage audiences critically in thinking about Penn's legacy and future reparative actions.

- Are the concepts in the submission addressed succinctly, even if only a prototype or work-in-progress?

Yes

- Does the title reflect the content of the submission?

Yes

- Is the subject relevant to our readership (see scope and content of our journal/online)?

Yes

- Should the text be expanded or condensed? If so, where and how? Please be as specific as possible in order to provide the Author with the opportunity to take advantage of constructive feedback.

No

- Is the text written clearly and organized logically?

Yes
